AML & KYC POLICY

1. Anti-Money Laundering Law

1.1. The Company upholds its integrity of observing regulations under the Anti-Money Laundering (“AML”) compliance. This policy intends to filter illegal activities, including securities fraud, terrorist financing, and other unlawful acts related to concealing the origins of illegally obtained money.

1.2. In compliance with the relevant financial regulations, the Company conducts authentication and verification procedures for the Client’s identification. The Client must provide the necessary documents to complete the process in compliance with this policy. In addition, the Company keeps a record of the Client’s documents and transactions for security purposes.

1.3. The Clients, the Company, and its workforce shall hereby act according to the Anti-Money Laundering Policy, where necessary documents must be presented accordingly for verification.

1.4. The Company records all transactions performed through the Website and the corresponding banks and financial institutions for security purposes. Furthermore, the AML Compliance Committee executes Suspicious Activity Reports (or “SARs”) and other mandatory disclosure in writing to the relevant legal administrations.

1.5. The Company and its workforce are committed to preventing money laundering and other unlawful activities. The Company’s business division undergoes risk-based methods judiciously estimated to filter and identify the aforementioned reports under the International Anti-Money Laundering Law.

2. Judicial

2.1. The Company is unwavering in its public responsibility to avert illegal misconduct. The Company and its workforce strictly observe the verification practices and is vigilant to prevent further and control risks that can affect the Company’s operations.

2.2. The Company is always aware of any national and global occurrence of initiatives to prevent terrorism funding, money laundering, tax evasion, and other illegal financial activities. The Company justifies the protection of its managerial operations, personal records of employees and the Clients, and all forms of documents confidential in nature. Any form of threat related to illegal financial activities will deal with legal proceedings.

3. Verification of Identity

3.1. Identity verification includes, but is not limited to, the provision of the Client's complete name and address, date of birth, passport number and country of issuance, and other personal information that the Company may request.

3.2. The Client ensures to provide true and accurate information, which will be recorded data as part of his/her identification. The Company reserves the right to reject, cancel, or suspend any transaction if any form of information discrepancy occurs. Transactions with third parties on behalf of the Client must have a Power of Attorney ("POA") subject to the approval of the Company. If the third-party transaction was not approved, the Company reserves the right to consider the transaction invalid without prior notice.

4. Know Your Customer Policy

4.1. In compliance with the AML Policy, the Company has set the Know Your Customer ("KYC") Policy in due diligence procedures for customer identification. This policy also intends to distinguish the intention of grand larceny, identity theft, financial fraud, and terrorist funding.

4.2. The Client must provide certain information and documentation to the Company to verify his/her identity, nature of business, and intended purpose of transactions. The Company requires the Clients to submit the needed documents as soon as possible to avoid delays when making transactions.

4.3. In certain conditions, the Company reserves the right to demand additional documentation from the Client before allowing him/her to perform further actions such as depositing, withdrawing, or trading.

4.4. The following factors are considered in assessing the risks of violating the AML Policy:

- Whether the Client is an individual, an intermediary, a financial or non-financial institution, or a regulated person or entity
- If the Client is already registered and is managing multiple accounts more than the Company allows
- Means of how the Client was referred
- If the Client's business or trading account has a greater likelihood of being involved in unlawful activities
- If the Client's residence is from a jurisdiction with bank secrecy laws

Risk Disclaimer: Derivatives and other leveraged products come with risks when traded in the market and may not be suitable for all investors. You should consider whether you understand how derivatives work and if you can afford to take a high level of risk to your capital. Before trading with Greendax, you should read the Terms & Conditions and Risk Disclosure in their entirety.
